

Imagine the effect of one single heartfelt letter written by a child in India to a child in Pakistan

DOST
How ARE
you?

I LOVE you can't my home

Now imagine a whole classroom sending friendship messages across the border.

What if an entire school were to do it?

Now imagine the effect if all of the schools across India were to participate...

Dear friend,

Roses are red, Sky is blue and a true friendship is as sweet as dew. You know friendship is that strength which no one can break, it has power to unite two minds, two nations and two religions. It shows affection between two friends as strong as between mother and her child.

You might have heard many proverbs on friendship such as "A friend in need is a friend indeed." "A man without friend is like a man without soul." Hence keeping this thought in mind I dreamed of having a good friend, who would be different from all, who would be special for me and hence I am writing this letter to you.

I know you will be a best friend of me sharing my thoughts and feelings. Oh! Sorry In a mind full of emotions I forgot to introduce myself. I am Rohini Dagale from a small city in India known as Panvel. I am studying in K.V.
Kanya Vidyalaya in class VIII and I love maths, Science and English. Here I have quite good friends which help me in my studies. I wish you may also having such good friends as I have. My school is my second home. The teachers are good and cooperative.

You know my house life is as good as

Dear friend,

How are you I am fine Do you like eating I Like eating chicken Lolly pop, Biriyani and sweets. What do you like eating? I am in a school named St. Joseph in Std IV Div C.
Which school and Std are you in? How many friends do you have? I have many friends.

Would you like being my friend

Dear friends,
My Grandmother always says that Pakistanis well known for its tasty food.
I have heard that the Indians, Pakistanis are also found of eating tasty food.
Do you know that my favourite comedian is an Pakistani, she, Omair Sadiq who is well known for his stage shows. I like all his stage shows he is just amazing. Do you remember an Indian film, in which I was told in Dubai, in which Omair Sadiq and Shabana Azmi both were together on the stage. It looks so good when an Indian and Pakistani are together. It makes me very happy.
Indian had also produced many comedians for comedy serial in Indian shows. I.O.C (Life of a serial) in Indian the relationship between an Indian and Pakistani living in the same house but made a line in the middle of the house and named it as I.O.C. It is a comedy serial.

FRIENDS FOREVER

Might such a genuine gift of love not forever bridge the younger generations of both countries?

India LOVES
